

Having held an amateur radio license for over 40 years and having witnessed many changes in amateur radio, I fully support the proposal laid forth by the American Radio Relay League. I believe in is the best plan for the future of amateur radio. And strongly encourage the FCC to incorporate it in a future rule-making.